

EXPLORING PEACE

International Studies Association's
57th Annual Convention in Atlanta

INVITATION

We kindly invite you to our
Reception & Book Launch

Wednesday, March 16, 2016

7:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Hilton Atlanta Hotel

Grand Ballroom D

KFG The Transformative
Power of Europe

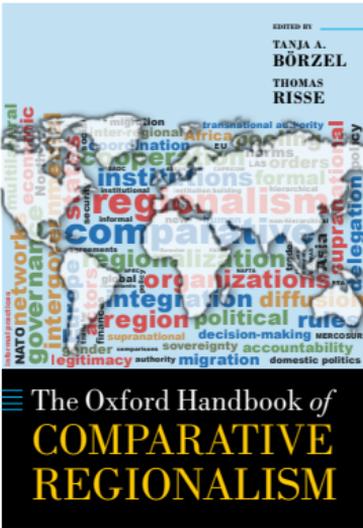

EXPLORING PEACE

International Studies Association's
57th Annual Convention in Atlanta

Reception & Book Launch

Wednesday, March 16, 2016,
7:30 pm – 8:30 pm

Grand Ballroom D
Hilton Atlanta Hotel

The “Oxford Handbook of Comparative Regionalism”, co-edited by the KFG directors Tanja A. Börzel and Thomas Risse, will be launched during the reception.

The Handbook – the first of its kind – assembles leading scholars to take stock of a research field located at the interface of area studies, comparative politics, and international relations.

ABOUT THE RESEARCH COLLEGE

KFG

The Research College (KFG) “The Transformative Power of Europe” examines the role of the EU as promoter and recipient of ideas, analyzing the mechanisms and effects of internal and external diffusion processes in two research areas:

- The EU and Regional Institutions in Latin America, Africa, the Middle East and Asia
- Europe and the EU as Recipients of Diffusion

See you there!

Tanja A. Börzel & Thomas Risse