

Challenges to International Humanitarian Law in Areas of Limited Statehood – adaptable and legitimate, or petrified and unreasonable?

Workshop on 25 November 2016

Programme

Introduction to the Collaborative Research Centre (SFB 700) 09:00
Organizers

Panel Norm Development in IHL

1st Presentation: The Colonial Origins of the Non-International Armed Conflict 09:30
Raphael Schäfer

2nd Presentation: The Permissive and/or Restrictive Nature of IHL 10:00
Katja Schöberl and Linus Mührel

1st Commentary 10:30
Björnsterne Baade

2nd Commentary 10:45
Pia Hesse

Discussion 11:00

Lunch 12:00

Panel Current Normative Problems of IHL in Areas of Limited Statehood

1 st Presentation: A legal basis for detention by states in non-international armed conflicts (in German) Manuel Brunner	13:15
Commentary Anton Petrov	13:45
Discussion	14:00
2 nd Presentation: Detention in non-international armed conflicts by organized armed groups Vincent Widdig	14:30
Commentary Lars Müller	15:00
Discussion	15:15
Coffee Break	15:45
3 rd Presentation: Detention through UN Peacekeeping: Practical and legal dilemmas of the holding facilities within Protection of Civilians (POC) sites in South Sudan Hannah Dönges	16:00
Commentary Matthias Lippold	16:30
Discussion	16:45
4 th Presentation: The convergence of legal norms in spaces of limited statehood using the example of International Humanitarian Law and International Investment Law: a critical approach Dorota Banaszewska	17:15
Commentary Charlotte Lülff	17:45
Discussion	18:00
Concluding Observations of the Organizers	18:30
End of Workshop	19:00
Dinner	20:00